

National and New York State Health Care Legislation: Emphasis on Single Payer Bill

A panel discussion presented by the Putnam County League of Women Voters in cooperation with Mahopac Public Library

Tuesday, May 23

6:30 pm

@ Mahopac Public Library

Panel members:

Mark Hannay is Director of Metro New York Health Care For All, a citywide coalition of community groups and labor unions that advocates for fundamental health care reform leading to a universal health care program.

Lindsay C. Farrell is the President and CEO of Open Door Medical Centers, an organization accredited by the Joint Commission, and recognized by the National Committee on Quality Assurance as a Level 3 Patient Centered Medical Home.

Susan Elan holds a Master of Public Health degree, and is currently Adjunct Assistant Professor of Epidemiology and Community Health at the NY Medical College School of Health Sciences and Practice.

Madeline Zevon is the Health Care Chair for the League of Women Voters of New York State and Westchester County.

Moderator: Lillian Jones, Executive Director - American Cancer Society, Greater NY; Member of the Putnam County League of Women Voters.

Students are encouraged to attend.

Voter registration forms will be available at this presentation.

The League of Women Voters is a nonpartisan political organization that encourages informed and active participation in government, works to increase understanding of major public policy issues, and influences public policy through education and advocacy. Membership is open to women and men, 16 years and older. Putnam County League of Women Voters is one of over 50 local Leagues across New York State.

Registration is requested; walk-ins welcome. Register online at www.mahopaclibrary.org, or call 845-628-2009, ext 100.